CONNECT WITH CONFIDENCE

Kerrie is widely known as an engaging international speaker and author who inspires leaders and entrepreneurs to connect with confidence.

As a speaker, author and leadership coach, Kerrie's message goes beyond cultural borders, tapping into a yearning that lies within each of us; the desire to connect with those around us.

Best known for her book DO Talk To Strangers - How to Connect with Anyone, Anywhere, Kerrie is an expert at equipping audiences with thought provoking and practical tools to develop the confidence they need in order to expand their network and create more opportunities.

KEY MESSAGE

At the heart of every presentation is Kerrie's driving message of living purposefully and communicating at your very best, enabling you to connect with others in a meaningful way.

Kerrie will reveal how to create new connections, deepening learning and creating new opportunities for growth.

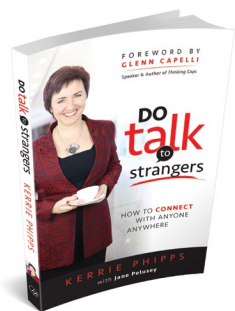

Her 'how to' style presentations will equip both you and your delegates with the tools required to connect with people in an authentic way. You'll discover how creating connections and relationships can lead to an increase in profit and impact.

PRESENTATIONS

Kerrie will partner with you to tailor her presentations and workshops to ensure that your event is a success. Your participants will be equipped, not just inspired, through a range of topics including:

- Do Talk to Strangers - Connect with Confidence
- Effective Leadership for Women
- Leadership Conversation Frameworks

PUBLICATIONS

- DO Talk To Strangers - How to Connect with Anyone, Anywhere
- Lifting The Lid On Quiet Achievers - Success Stories of Regional Entrepreneurs
- Featured as a contributing author in many books and magazines.
